Where We’ve Been

Team Time

- Continuous improvement plans
- Cross-District communication/planning
- Planning for professional learning
- Using tools and resources to refine work
Your Personal Learning Plan

- Review your PLP.
- Consider how your PLP might have changed since you first wrote it.
- Identify one aspect of your PLP that you’d like to focus on through the next two days.
Where You Are

Your Personal Learning Plan

• Turn and talk to the person next to you to share your focus area for the next two days.
I can plan formative assessments aligned to summative assessment goals.
Outcomes - Today

I can identify strategies or steps to improve my district’s system of formative assessment.
Vermont Seminar Series

Proficiency-Based Learning: A Systemic Approach is a seminar series focused on supporting districts and school unions in Vermont to implement proficiency-based learning. Here, you can find all the meeting materials, our webinar archive, and essential guiding documents and resources to support your work.

Essential Question:
Why is formative assessment one of the most critical components of a proficiency-based learning system?

Pick 2-3 passages that help you think about the essential question.
Formative Assessment

Save The Last Word for ME

Roles: Ruthless Timekeeper, Reporter

Process

1. One person reads a quotation out loud. No explanation!
2. Each person has 1 minute to respond/reflect.
3. The reader has 2 minutes to reflect on what others have said.
4. Repeat process.
5. Open discussion on essential question (5 min)

Protocol adapted from The School Reform Initiative, Inc.
Essential Question: Why is formative assessment one of the most critical components of a proficiency-based learning system?

1. Reader reads quotation

2. 1 minute responses.

3. Reader: 2 minutes reflection.

4. Repeat process.

5. Open discussion on essential question.

Cross-Curricular Graduation Standards 5–8 standards taught in all content areas

Content-Area Graduation Standards 5–8 standards for each content area

Verification of Proficiency Students demonstrate achievement of content-area graduation standards through their aggregate performance on summative assessments over time

Performance Indicators 5–10 indicators for each cross-curricular and content-area standard that move students toward proficiency and the achievement of graduation standards

Summative Assessment Graded summative assessments are used to evaluate the achievement of performance indicators

Learning Objectives Learning objectives guide the design of curriculum units that move students toward proficiency and the achievement of performance indicators

Connecting Summative Assessments to Formative Plans

Unit Title: The American Revolution—was it justified?
Grade Level/Course: Grade 8 US History

Stage 2- Evidence of Student Learning

Summative assessment

Students will assume the roles of historical figures and participate in a 1776 colonial town meeting at which they will debate whether to declare independence from Great Britain. Loyalists and Patriots will try to persuade Neutralists to join their side; Neutralists will question the Loyalists and Patriots on their arguments and use/interpretation of evidence and then vote each “round” on which side has the most compelling arguments and rebuttals. All students will use strategic thinking to cite evidence, develop logical arguments and justify their own conclusions or critique conclusions others have drawn. Students who are proficient are able to think strategically and make logical inferences about the perspective the historical person they are role-playing would have had on the events and key laws of 1770s America.

Students will prepare the following materials to use in their town meeting:
• Written speech from perspective of historical person who the student is role-playing (SS 1/E; SS 6 E, GP A.2, A.3)
• Create a visual (poster, google site, twitter feed, etc.) that demonstrates the point of view of character (SS 6/B; GP A.4)
• Nameplate for historical character with “quote” summarizing character’s perspective on independence from Great Britain (GP A.4; SS 6.B)

• One thing that was either new or affirming.

• How you might use—or modify—this process to use with faculty.
Formative Assessment Systems

- Formative assessment often treated as the act of individual teachers.
- Back to Hattie research—teachers working together to examine impact.
Formative Assessment Systems

• “Teaching is a team sport”

• Often stops at summative assessment or curriculum development

CCSSO features of formative assessment:

- Formative assessment is a planned process, not any particular test.
- It is used not just by teachers but by both teachers and students.
- Formative assessment takes place during instruction.
- It provides assessment-based feedback to teachers and students.
- The function of this feedback is to help teachers and students make adjustments that will improve students' achievement of intended curricular aims.
“[F]or formative assessment to exist at all, it must lead to instructional adjustment decisions by teachers or learning tactic adjustment decisions by students.

The decisions to adjust or not to adjust…need to be made on the spot or almost on the spot—when there's still instructional and learning time available.” - W. James Popham

Formative Assessment + Instruction

One Example: My Favorite “No”
Turn and Talk:

How were formative assessment results used by the teacher and students?

What enables students to learn from errors in this classroom?
Text-Based Seminar:

1. Read “The Rest of the Story” (10 min)
2. Conduct Text-Based Discussion (30 min)
3. Ground rules:
   - Refer to the text and guiding question.
   - Share air time.
   - Listen actively; build on others’ ideas.
   - Ask questions to build understanding.

Observation Share Out

- What was one commendation your team made to this teacher?
- What was one suggestion?
- How might this process be useful with teachers in your district or how would you modify the process?
What is High Quality Instruction?

- Write a reflection on this question and share with your team.
- Shadow a student in one of your schools.
- Visit a teacher’s classroom.
- Read one of the articles on our series website.

PLP Reflection

• Review your own PLP

• Reflection:

  ‣ How might the past two days on formative assessment practices and systems inform my personal work in my district / supervisory union?

  ‣ What will I do to prepare for our work on high quality instruction in March?
Next Steps

• Webinar on 3/4 - The “Flow” of a Proficiency-Based Classroom.

• Next in-person session 3/11-3/12:
  • High quality core instruction
  • Multi-tiered system of support
  • Flexible pathways

• Contact Ken Templeton for support in-between sessions:
