

Performance Indicator	1	2	3	4
Compare and contrast various explanations or differing points of view of the same issue or event.	I can list or imagine some possible points of view or perspectives on an issue or event.	I can read and summarize various explanations or differing points of view of the same issue or event.	I can compare and contrast various explanations or points of view of the same issue or event.	I can evaluate the reliability of various explanations and points of view, and critique the arguments offered.
Analyze the interaction between human life and environmental systems, and evaluate the importance of resources in various regions of the world.	I can list the important resources from an area of the world.	I can give historical or current examples of the impact of environmental systems on human life.	I can analyze the interactions between environmental systems and human life in various places and/or time periods.	I can synthesize information from diverse sources about interactions between environmental systems and human life to develop logical conclusions
Evaluate how culture and experience influence people's perceptions of the physical and human characteristics of places and regions.	I can give examples of how people's perceptions of places and regions can differ.	I can explain how my culture or background might influence how I see different places and cultures.	I can explain the role of culture and experience in shaping people's perceptions of places and regions using current and/or historical examples.	I can evaluate the impact and significance of people's differing perceptions of places and regions on physical environments and human societies.