

Read and comprehend appropriately complex literary and informational texts independently and proficiently.

---

In writing, establish and maintain a formal style and objective tone.

---

Operate effectively in a group to promote a civil exchange of ideas that probes reasoning and evidence.

---

Create an original piece of choreography using the elements of dance.

---

Select, prepare, and help with exhibiting works of art and articulate an artistic justification for their selection.

---

Use a semicolon appropriately.

---

Conjugate the verb estar.

Understand and analyze the characteristics, functions, and behavioral interactions within an ecosystem

---

Construct an explanation of the Big Bang theory based on astronomical evidence of light spectra, motion of distant galaxies, and composition of matter in the universe.

---

Students assess their own learning by developing rigorous criteria for themselves, and use these to set goals and produce consistently high-quality work.

---

Students demonstrate dependability, productivity, and initiative.

---

Evaluate how people influence government and work for the common good

---

Select and organize evidence from primary and secondary sources to support an historical interpretation or argument.

---

Summarize, represent, and interpret data on two categorical and quantitative variables.

Prove, understand, and model geometric concepts, theorems, and constructions to solve problems.