

Book Recommendations from ELA Champions

You Don't Have To Say You Love Me by Sherman Alexie The Behavior Code Learning to Choose, Choosing to Learn A Man Called Ove Lies My Teacher Told Me The Wallpaper Effect Hacking Engagement The Reading Teacher journal What Teachers Really Need To Know About Formative Assessment by Laura Greenstein Every Last Word (YA fiction) Complete works of H. P. Lovecraft Everyday Social and Emotional Learning in Middle School Catch 22 by Joseph Heller The Perfect Assessment System Minds Made for Stories: How We Really Read and Write Informational and Persuasive Texts by Thomas Newkirk	Proficiency-Based Assessment The Alsos Trilogy Marzano's Classroom Instruction Mrs. Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children Embrace Grace Growth Mindset LaRose by Louise Erdrich On Apology How Children Succeed by Paul Tough The Lost City of the Monkey God Hyperbole and a Half Lost at School by Russ Green What Great Principals Do Differently Drown by Junot Diaz La Lacuna by Barbara Kingsolver Tobias Wolfe books and short stories The Power of Inquiry
--	--